A Word from Our Pastor

This week Linda and I attended the Southern Baptist Convention in Louisville, Kentucky. The annual meeting of our denomination is a time to hear of the great work God is doing through Southern Baptists in our local churches, in our country, and to the nations of the world. It is also a time of spiritual challenge and reflection in your personal walk with the Lord and the ministry of your own local church. Currently, there are over 44,000 churches that make up the Southern Baptist Convention. Our denomination exists for the purpose of proclaiming the gospel to the ends of the earth and strengthening the churches. In North America a new church is started every 6 hours (that's 4 per day). Yet, our country still has millions of people who do not know Christ. With our country in economic recession and pressures rising on homes and families, this gives us unprecedented opportunity to reach these people for Christ. Through the testimonies given in our annual meeting my heart was challenged to look for ways to minister to people in need and in that ministry, share the gospel of Christ.

Next Sunday, our guest preacher will be Tim Lee. Tim is a gifted evangelist and a powerful preacher. If you have friends who do not know Christ invite them to come with you next Sunday. It can make an eternal difference in their lives.

Tonight in our evening service, we will have a special season of prayer for our worship service next Sunday with Tim Lee and for the ministries of our church. I look forward to joining with you, my brothers and sisters in a season of prayer as we seek the Lord and ask for His guidance and blessing as we serve Him together through the life and ministry of our church.
