WE EXTEND CHRISTIAN SYMPATHY TO ...

... Jim and Loretta Smiley in the death of Jim's sister, Joyce Sousa of Lakewood, New Jersey on Tuesday, June 28.

THANK YOU'S...

The St. John mission team sincerely appreciates the many acts of support and kindness extended by the church. We really felt your prayer support, whether it was written or spoken. Your encouraging words before and after the trip were a source of motivation for us. The food prepared by several ladies really nourished us. Someone helped us get to and from the airport. Some helped select the craft items that the children thoroughly enjoyed. Several team members could not have gone were it not for the scholarships provided. The list of "thank you's" could go on and on. We ministered to an enrollment of 60 children during the VBS at Calvary Baptist. We had five decisions. We continued to encourage the parents of the children to seek the Lord's guidance for raising the children. Without the support of Peninsula (you) and the Lord's guidance, none of this would have happened. We would not have had this trip or seen five decisions for Christ! Thanks for letting Christ use you!

Dr. Jackson and Peninsula Family,

On behalf of Mom and the entire Campbell family, I want to thank you for the beautiful mixed floral arrangement you sent in tribute to Dad. During his illness and homegoing, our family was surrounded with love and support by the church, and we thank you.

Sincerely, Sharon Wheeler for the family

Dear Peninsula Church family,

Thanks for the flowers in memory of Ed Buddin. Robert did a special service in memory of Ed. I hope to visit the church over the next year when I am visiting my sister Linda. Thanks again for your support.

Love, Sharon Buddin (Linda Jackson's sister)

MEMORIAL DONATION

A memorial gift to our library has been received in memory of Ruby Burnett from the Willing Workers Sunday School class.
